Reviews

This publication is really gripping and exciting. It really is basic but unexpected situations in the 50 % in the book. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

LES DOUANES CHEZ LES ROMAINS

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 80 pages. OCLC Number: 753577561 Excerpt: . . . After the court ruling, in 2000, FDA announced an interim enforcement strategy to allow companies to petition the agency for qualified health claims on dietary supplements and established criteria for the agency to consider in exercising its enforcement discretion to not take actions. In 2002, FDA announced its decision to expand this approach to include qualified health claims on conventional food as well. The next year, FDA issued guidance to industry on procedures for petitioning the agency for qualified health claims for food. Once FDA announces, on the basis of its review of scientific evidence, that it intends to consider exercising its enforcement discretion for the use of a qualified health claim, any food company that meets the same criteria with the same food may use the claim. In 2008, we reported that stakeholders from health, consumer, and medical groups advocated eliminating qualified health claims on food labels because they confused and misled consumers and might encourage 2 consumption of foods with few or no health benefits. The Subcommittees on Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration, and Related Agencies, Senate and House Committees on Appropriations, directed that we study issues regarding FDAs 3 Specifically, this report implementation of qualified health claims on food. examines (1) the results of FDAs efforts to allow the use of qualified health claims on food, and its oversight of these claims and (2) what is known about consumers understanding of qualified health claims on food. In addition, the report examines industrys use of structure function claims on food and FDAs oversight of these claims. Appendix I provides updates to information we reported in 2008 on FDAs implementation and administration...
