Mr. Dennett opened a tumulus upon Shalcombe Down; and he records the discovery, a long time since, of the two circular silver gilt fibulae set with garnets which were in his possession: the grave in which these and other objects had been laid, was undermined by men digging for marl. Without doubt valuable remains have from time to time been destroyed by persons ignorant of their archaeological value; in proof of which we may cite Mr. Dennett's story about the helmet with letters upon it which nobody could read; it was probably a bronze dish...
