In the event of sudden sickness or accident, immediate report thereof shall be made by the officer or member to his commanding officer, who shall, if upon inquiry and investigation it may seem proper, issue a short leave of absence or excuse from fire duty in writing to such officer or member pending the granting of a leave upon the recommendation of either of the medical officers, who shall be notified of the occurrence without delay. Such notice shall state whether the case is urgent or otherwise, and whether the officer or member is able to report in person or not, and if not, where he can be found. The medical officers shall, if necessary, recommend to the officer authorized to grant leaves of absence under Paragraph XI. of this order, a leave to his patient for an indefinite period, and the commanding officer shall...
