Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1885 edition. Excerpt: . . . Controls printed in the preceding pages of this volume, which are but a fifth of what I had between the date of the first, and the latest Control. I do not for one moment mean to assert, that it would not be in the power of a well-educated man, with strong powers of imagination, to write, or even to speak, an Essay equal, if not superior, to any I have recorded. But I doubt the power of any living man, to go on, week after week, three times in each week, for year after year, giving the utterances, covering all countries, all times, and all subjects of interest, and all the time he is speaking to be in a state of unconscious trance, insensible to all bodily feeling, and utterly ignorant, when he returns to his normal state, of all he has said during his trance. In the preceding Divisions, the main object of the Controlling Spirits seems to have been proof of identity. The Controls in this present Division, which I have designated u Miscellaneous, give but slight evidence of identity, their main object being apparently their desire of giving their opinions on past or passing events, in all of which they seem to take a lively interest. BUSIRIS. THE ANCIENT OF DAYS. First and Introductory Control, August 27th, 1878. S to who Busiris was, history gives me no aid in discovering. According to the account given by him through the lips of...
